

General Education Adjunct Faculty

Center for Advanced Legal Studies is accepting applications for talented and qualified, adjunct instructors. All courses are delivered in an online synchronous format, requiring live virtual instruction during scheduled class times.

Part-time teaching opportunities may be available in future terms for the following general studies courses:

English Composition I

Intro to Speech

English Composition II

Anatomy & Physiology I

General Psychology

Contemporary Math

Intro to Sociology

Principles of Economics

American Government I

Comparative Politics

Qualifications:

Faculty of general education classes must have completed at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline and hold at least a master's degree. In exceptional cases, outstanding professional experience and/or demonstrated contributions to the teaching discipline may be presented in lieu of formal graduate level education. Teaching experience is a plus but not required.

Technical Skills:

Familiarity with Canvas LMS and/or Blackboard Collaborate is preferred. Applicants who have not used Canvas/Blackboard previously must have a high level of technical ability.

To expedite the evaluation process, CALS asks that you complete the employment application and upload your resume online by going to:

CALS Employment Application

